COMPUTATION OF ROYALTY FEE: The formula to compute the royalty fee involves 14 components combined on pages 2–3. There are two different formulas for computing the royalty fee: (1) a formula for audio recording devices that are identified by the letters A, B, C, or D in column 4; and (2) a formula for audio recording media that are identified by the letter E in column 4. For further explanation of the information required for each column, see pages i–ii of the general instructions.

COMPUTING THE ROYALTY FEE FOR DIGITAL AUDIO RECORDING DEVICES: On a line-by-line basis, enter the information in columns 1–8, 10, and 12 and compute the royalty fee:

- Step 1: Multiply column 7 by column 8 and enter the result in column 9.
- Step 2: Multiply column 7 by column 12 and enter the result in column 13.
- Step 3: Multiply column 6 first by column 7, then by column 10, and enter the result in column 11.
- Step 4: Select the appropriate royalty fee either from column 9, 11, or 13 as explained in the general instructions, page ii, and enter that figure in column 14.

COMPUTING THE ROYALTY FEE FOR DIGITAL AUDIO RECORDING MEDIUM: On a line-by-line basis, enter the information in columns 1–7 and 10 and compute the royalty fee:

- Step 1: Multiply column 6 first by column 7, then by column 10.
- Step 2: Enter the result of Step 1 in column 14.

COMPUTING THE TOTAL ROYALTY FEE: Complete Lines 1–7 on page 3.

ROUNDING OFF DOLLARS: You may not round off cents to whole dollars when calculating the royalty fee on a line-by-line basis in Space C. However, you may round cents to whole dollars for the total fee due on Line 7, Space C.

- Line 1: Total Column 14 and enter the figure here $ _____
- Line 2: Reduction: Enter the amount from Space D, page 3 ..... $ _____
- Line 3: Credits: Enter the amount from Space E, page 4 ..... $ _____
- Line 4: Add Lines 2 and 3 and enter total here $ _____

Quarterly Statement of Account—DART/Q General Instructions

The Audio Home Recording Act of 1992 (Pub. L. No. 102-563) went into effect October 28, 1992.

Chapter 10 of title 17, United States Code, creates new statutory obligations for parties who import and distribute in the United States or manufacture and distribute in the U.S. any digital audio recording device or digital audio recording medium. This law was enacted after interested parties came to an agreement about associated rights and compensation in an age in which near-perfect copying of protected audio works by consumers is possible.

How to File the Statement of Account and Royalty Fee

Manufacturing or importing parties must file a separate quarterly statement of account for quarters 1, 2, and 3, corresponding to the calendar or fiscal year elected.

First: Study the information and read through the instructions in the statement of account form. Before you start completing the form, make sure that you have collected all the necessary information and that you are using the right form.

Second: Complete the statement of account form, giving all the required information. Use a typewriter, a legible printer, or hand print the information in dark ink.

Third: Certify the statement of account by signing in Space H. The statement of account is not acceptable unless it bears the original handwritten signature of an authorized officer, principal, or agent as authorized to certify it pursuant to the Audio Home Recording Act of 1992 (Chapter 10, Section 1003(c)(2) of title 17 USC).

Fourth: Royalty fees are required to be paid by an electronic payment, pursuant to Section 201.28 (h)(1) of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Make an electronic payment in the amount of the royalty fee due as calculated in Space C. See the Federal Register, August 10, 2006 (71 FR 45739) at www.copyright.gov/fedreg/2006/71fr45739.html. For detailed instructions concerning electronic payments, contact the Licensing Division between 8:30 AM and 5:00 PM eastern time by calling (202) 707-8150, faxing (202) 707-0905, or emailing licensing@loc.gov for circulars 74A (on payments via wire), 74B (on payments via ACH credit), and 74C (on payments using pay.gov), which are also available at www.copyright.gov/circs/circ74.

Statements of account may be filed on either a calendar year or fiscal year basis at the election of the manufacturer or importer. Enter the calendar or fiscal year designation, including the beginning and ending month, day, and year of the period covered by the quarter.

Space B • Name, Address, and Filing Status

The full legal name of the manufacturing or importing party will be included, together with the fictitious or assumed name, if any, used by the person or entity for the purpose of conducting the business of manufacturing and distributing or importing and distributing digital audio recording products.

In addition, Space B requires the full mailing address of the manufacturing or importing party, including a specific number and street name or rural route of the place of business of this person or entity. A post office box or similar designation will not be sufficient for this purpose except where it is the only address that can be used in that geographic location. Space B also requires a designation of the manufacturing or importing party’s status, such as manufacturer, importer, or manufacturer and importer.

Space C • Computation of Royalty Fee

Column 1: Product Categories • Enter the product category of the digital audio recording products manufactured and distributed or imported and distributed by the manufacturing or importing party during the quarter covered by the statement. Product categories include hand-held portable integrated combination units (“boomboxes”), portable personal recorders, stand-alone home recorders (“tape decks”), home combination systems (“rack systems”), automobile recorders, configurations of tape media (standard cassettes or microcassettes), and configurations of disc media, such as 2½”, 3”, and 5” discs.

Column 2: Technologies • Enter the technology of the digital audio recording products manufactured and distributed or imported and distributed by the manufacturing or importing party during the quarter covered by the statement. The technology of a device or medium is a product type distinguished by different technical processes for digitally recording musical sounds, such as digital audio recorders (DAT), digital compact cassettes (DCC), or different disc-based technologies such as minidisc (MD).

Column 3: Series or Model # • Enter the model (or, in the case of media, series) numbers assigned by the manufacturer to the digital audio recording products manufactured and distributed or imported and distributed by the manufacturing or importing party during the quarter covered by the statement.

Column 4: Fee Code • Enter the fee code that is associated with the product. Fee Code A applies to a digital audio recording device distributed as a physically integrated unit.

Fee Code B applies to a device that is not a physically integrated unit where substantially similar separate components have been distributed separately at any time during the previous 4 quarters using the average transfer price.

Fee Code C applies to a device that is not a physically integrated unit where such separate components have not been distributed separately at any time during the preceding 4 quarters using the proportional value of such devices to the combination as a whole.

Fee Code D applies to a stand-alone digital audio recording device.

Fee Code E applies to a digital audio recording medium.

IMPORTANT: When computing the royalty fee for the recording medium, do not complete columns 8, 9, 12, and 13.

Column 5: Source Code • Enter the Source Code for the product category. Enter an “M” if the product was manufactured in the United States. Enter an “I” if the product was imported into the United States.

Column 10: Rate • Enter the statutory royalty rate of 2 percent for digital audio recording devices or 3 percent for digital audio recording media.

Column 11: Rate Fee • Multiply the Transfer price (column 6) by the Number of Units Distributed (column 7) and then multiply the result by the Rate (column 10) and enter that figure in column 11 for the Rate Fee.

Column 12: Maximum Fee Per Unit • Enter the statutory Maximum Fee Per Unit of $8.00 for non-physically integrated units and $12.00 for physically integrated units.

Space D • Reduction of Royalty Payment

This space applies to a reduction of the royalty payment for digital audio recording devices in physically integrated units that were not first distributed in combination with a unit, and upon which royalty fees have been previously paid pursuant to section 1004 (a)(2)(A) of Public Law 102-563. You may give the total amount for the quarter.

Space E • Credits for Returned Products

When digital audio recording products are returned to the manufacturer or importer as unsold or defective merchandise, or are exported, the manufacturing or importing party may take a credit during the period when the products are returned or exported. The credit may be taken within two years following the date royalties were paid to the Copyright Office for the products by deducting the amount from the royalty fee due. The total amount of the credits for the entire accounting period must be given in Space E. If the manufacturer or importer later distributes any returned or exported merchandise for which a credit has been taken, the products must be listed in Space C and a new computation of the royalty fee will be made based on the transfer price of the products at the time of the new distribution.

Space F • Interest Worksheet

Interest will be imposed on underpayments and late payments of royalties due. Manufacturing or importing parties must calculate their own interest charge on the worksheet. Manufacturers or importers submitting royalty payments in an untimely fashion should include the proper interest charge with their payments. The interest rate is the rate quoted as the Current Value of Funds to Treasury, as published in the Federal Register, in effect on the first business day after the close of the filing deadline for the relevant accounting period.

The interest rate for a particular accounting period may be obtained by consulting the Federal Register or the Licensing Division of the Copyright Office for the applicable Current Value of Funds Rate.

For underpayments and late payments, the interest shall begin to accrue on the first day after the close of the filing date for that accounting period. For a late payment, the accrual period ends on the date that the statement of account and proper form of payment are received in the Copyright Office. For underpayments, the accrual period ends on the date appearing on the electronic payment, provided that the remittance is received in the Copyright Office within 5 business days of that date. Interest is not required to be paid on any royalty underpayment or late payment from a particular accounting period if the interest charge is less than or equal to $5.00.

Quarterly statements of account are due no later than 45 days after the close of the period covered by the statement. Annual statements are due on or before 2 months after the close of the calendar or fiscal year covered by the statement.

Corrections and Refunds

Errors in the computation of the royalty payments that result in underpayment of royalties can be corrected and supplemental payments made upon compliance with Copyright Office procedures. Contact the Licensing Division for specific instructions.

Refund requests must be received within two months after the close of a filing period. Contact the Licensing Division for filing procedures and fees.

NOTE: The annual statement of account (Form DART/A) incorporates your entire accounting year’s distribution of devices and media. The annual statement permits you to reconcile your year’s accounting of activities to what was actually distributed and/or adjusted based on your company’s accounting records. However, delayed payment of royalties does not affect the copyright owner’s right to any remedy that is available under the law.

Confidentiality of Statements of Account

Public access to the Copyright Office files of statements of account for digital audio recording products shall not be provided. Access will only be granted to interested copyright parties in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Register of Copyrights pursuant to section 1003(c) of title 17 USC, as amended by Pub. L. 102-563.
