When Buddha Didn't Answer

Only God can change a dying, poverty-stricken Buddhist and lead him to become pastor of the world's largest Assemblies of God church. You will thrill as you learn of his healing, call and perseverance.

717-398

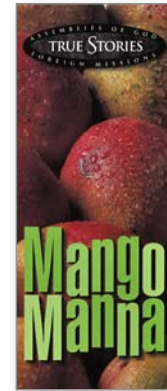

The Darkest Hour

Several times Christine Gatabazi, a Tutsi, escaped the clutches of Rwanda's Hutu extremists who sought to kill her. Her weapons were prayer and God's Word. Today she and her husband, Jean, lead the Assemblies of God in the nation.

717-402

Mango Manna

When a war-torn city runs out of food, Assemblies of God people pray. Although mango season is weeks away, the city's trees fill with fruit. After food shipments resume and the people have plenty to eat, the trees halt their fruit production.

717-405

The Taxi Evangelist

Ending his life on a bridge across town was the suicide plan of one businessman. But the would-be jumper changed his mind after he climbed into David's cab. God is changing lives as the Taxi Evangelist in Jakarta transports people and leads them to Christ.

717-412

Brochures communicate missions in a graphic and easy-to-read format.

Free at Last

Elizabeth was tormented by demon spirits and desperate for an answer to her problems. Animal sacrifices and ceremonial treatments were of no help. Several days before her planned marriage to the devil, she learned of deliverance through Christ. Now she is free and telling others of God's grace.

717-401

Stories from Eurasia

Despite persecution, oppression and poverty, the light of the gospel is penetrating Eurasia's darkness. God is opening people's eyes to the truth that "Jesus is the way, truth and life" (John 14:6).

717-397

The Voice

Omari saw his friends filled with a new joy but he was more upset and angry than ever. One morning he heard the strange voice — someone calling his name. The Lord spoke to Omari through a bright light, telling him to go to Bible school to become a pastor.

717-407

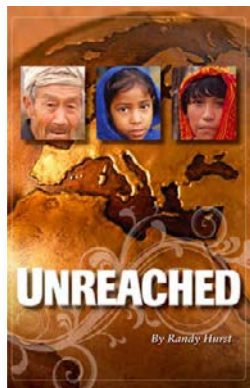

Flowers of Forgiveness

"You are stupid!" Her hand strikes his cheek not once, not twice, but many times. The angry teacher and her colleagues at a Soviet school ridicule the boy who denies the Communist oath, but they hang their heads in remorse when he returns as an adult bearing flowers, faith and forgiveness.

717-408

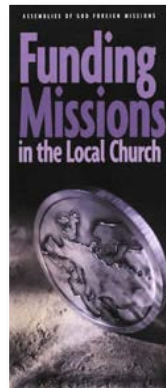

Unreached
 Nearly 4.4 billion people have not heard a clear presentation of the gospel. Why are so many unreached? What must believers do? This brochure addresses the reasons why many have not heard and our responsibility to reach them.

718-971

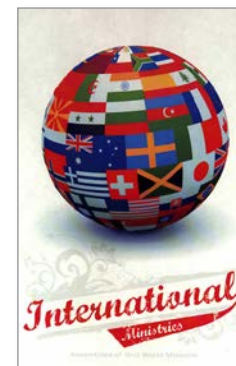

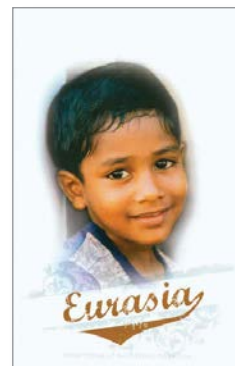

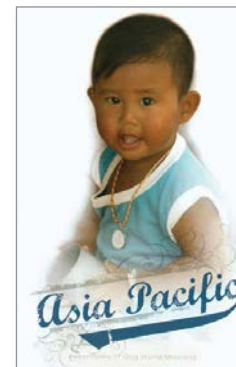

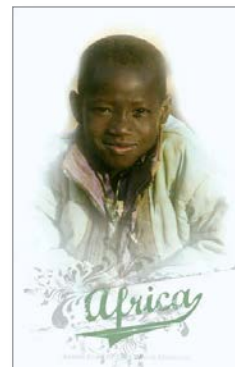

Frequently Asked Questions
 A guide to frequently asked questions covering a variety of topics such as commitments, offerings, giving certificates, and financial analysis.

718-970

Funding Missions
 Provides effective means of funding missions through the local church.

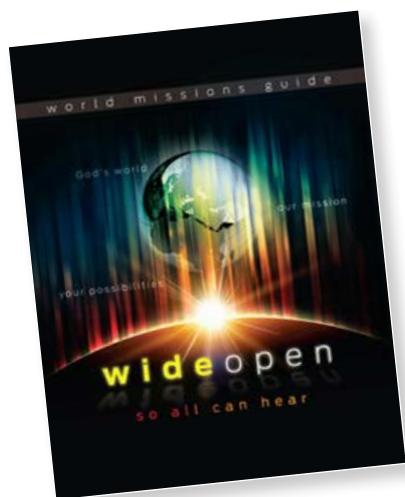

717-509

High Adventure in Tibet

By David V. Plymire

Accepting the challenge to carry the gospel into the mysterious land of Tibet, Victor Plymire is a great example of dedication to the missionary call and the cause of Christ. Experience the life and labors of this early Assemblies of God missionary. Paper.

717-213 $4.95

Letters from Lillian

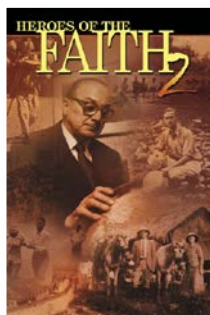

Miracles were a way of life for this dedicated mother of 8,000 Egyptian children.

In 1910, 23-year-old Lillian Trasher answered God's call for missionary service to Africa. The following year, she began an orphanage in Assiout, Egypt, that would be home for thousands of children and widows. Her letters from more than 50 years of service reveal her passion to repair broken lives and minister physically and spiritually to those who otherwise would never have heard the gospel. Paper.

• HEROES OF THE FAITH SERIES •

Heroes of the Faith 2

The second in a series of thrilling and inspirational accounts of brave, dedicated men and women who pioneered Assemblies of God missions. The stories of their lives have inspired others to consider them heroes of the faith. Paper.

717-227 $1.95

Heroes of the Faith 4: Compelled by Compassion

This fourth Heroes of the Faith presents incidents in the lives of 10 Assemblies of God missionary couples whose ministries laid foundations for the growth of national churches. Paper.

717-229 $1.95

Heroes of the Faith 6: God's Faithfulness

God's Faithfulness in War and Peace vividly portrays God at work. He uses a rainstorm to stop a riot, a healing miracle to quiet inner turmoil and heavenly guards to protect a missionary family. He sends a whistle halfway around the world to bring order out of chaos.

This Heroes of the Faith book tells of missionaries facing demonic power, finding God's provision and ministering in love despite outward circumstances. God's Faithfulness in War and Peace will inspire you to become one of God's heroes right where you are. Paper.

717-216 $1.95

Heroes of the Faith 3: Sacrifice & Triumph

A collection of missions accounts from the past and present featuring men and women who faithfully answered God's call. You will gain new courage and faith as you read about miracles, answered prayer, appearances of angels and triumph even in death. Paper.

717-228 $1.95

Heroes of the Faith 5: When God Breaks Through

This collection of true missions stories about remarkable answers to prayer will inspire you to reach out and touch God through personal prayer. Each account will remind you that no night is too dark or no prison so secure but that the hand of God can break through to minister to those who pray. Paper.

go 360 & WorldBeat

The monthly WorldBeat youth videos bring your teens a fresh news story about missions around the world. They'll see how teens their own age and missionaries are touching the poor and suffering and reaching the lost.

Specifically produced for children, go 360 shows young believers each month how children are involved in missions and overseas ministries. As they see new cultures and God changing people in other lands, they will be encouraged to pray, give and participate in reaching the lost.

Motivate young believers for the cause of Christ by purchasing a WorldBeat or go 360 subscription for your church.
