Basic Sailing Rules Course

For less experienced sailors, cadets and others keen to get a basic understanding of the rules of sailing. The course is a mixture of RYA PowerPoint slides and practical examples and scenarios.

Saturday 5th April 7pm—10pm

Cost—Free (bar will be open)

Club Rules Advisor Course

For experienced racing sailors keen to get an in-depth understanding of the rules of sailing. This certified course will provide participants with detailed knowledge of RYA Rules Dispute procedures. A mixture of RYA PowerPoint slides and practical scenario discussions in small groups.

Sunday 6th April 10 am - 4 pm

Cost — £15

The course tutor for both sessions will be Terence Brownrigg, the RYA Scotland Rules Advisor, and we are keen to get a good turn-out. Both courses are open to members of ELYC and other sailing clubs in Scotland and will be of interest to both dinghy and yacht helms. Booking is essential. Bring your own RYA Rule Book, models if you have them, and pen and paper.

ELYC Members can book through the website: <http://www.elyc.org.uk/Calendar>

Non members should contact: racing@elyc.org.uk

Both courses will be run in the sail-loft in ELYC's Clubhouse

36-40 Victoria Road, The Harbour, North Berwick, East Lothian EH39 4JL
