

Forget about platforms. Set your content free.

Amplify

- Feature your best content across pages and sites
- Get more exposure for major announcements
- Mix content inline or feature separately

Automate

- One click adds content to PushHub from your CMS
- Change once; instantly update everywhere
- Single (canonical) source protects SEO

Aggregate

- Combine content within your own network
- Import content from 3rd party sources
- Pick and curate content to fit your audience

Co-developed by Six Feet Up and UCLA, PushHub currently supports Plone and Drupal, with WordPress coming next. Custom connectors can also be built for other systems.

PushHub can share:

- Major news items
- Upcoming events/seminars
- Funding announcements
- Cross-departmental articles
- and much more...

“We are really excited about PushHub’s ability to manage shared content across hundreds of sites for us. It’s going to save time and money while providing better access to our content.”

- Albert Wu, Senior Director, Information Management Services at a major research university in Southern California

You can share just about any content

- Whole Articles
- Snippets
- Coupons
- Contact Information
- Profiles
- Policies

You can connect multiple platforms

You can pick & curate content

- Mix content from multiple sources
- Cherry-pick which pieces to display
- Display content teasers from other sites
- Import entire pages of content

You can be confident

- Shared content is indexed in site search
- Updates sync immediately
- PushHub is SEO friendly by design
- Enjoy zero impact on your site's performance
