2015 ISAF Youth Worlds Emerging Nations Programme (YW ENP)

Aims:

- More nations attending the ISAF Youth Sailing World Championships (80 Nations in 2015).
- Emerging nations to come to the Youth Worlds event better prepared and for the 'performance gap' between nations to be reduced.
- Post-event monitoring of sailors and provision of access for them and their coaches to on-going support through the following year's YW ENP.
- Support to sailors who will be in-eligible for future YW ENP projects due to age, via the 2018 ISAF Sailing World Championship ENP or the IOC Olympic Solidarity Youth Olympic Games / Olympic Games Athlete Scholarship applications.
- Enable independent, non-subsidised attendance of current Emerging Nations at the Aarhus 2018 ISAF Sailing World Championships

YW ENP - Activity overview:

Eligibility of participating nations:

The criteria for evaluation will be based on, but not limited to the following:

- Total attendance at the ISAF Youth Worlds event over the previous 4 years. Those attending all of the last 4 YW events will be required to fulfil alternative eligibility criteria in order to be considered.
- MNAs completing YW APP funding applications for support of attendance at 3 or fewer Youth Worlds events in the last 4 years will be eligible.
- Allocation of 2006 - 2014 IODA development funds will equal eligibility.
- Non-attendance at 2014 IODA and/or Laser World Championships will result in eligibility.

Eligibility criteria continued.....

- Non-existence of formally identified national youth sail training programmes will result in eligibility.
- Application for IOC Olympic Solidarity funded programmes (Coaches / Sailors) at least once in the last 4 years will result in eligibility
- ISAF MNA / Associate Member status gained within the last 4 years will result in eligibility.
- MNAs will be eligible if they have benefitted from Youth Olympic Games Athlete Scholarship for one or more sailors at the last YOG event.
- Attendance at the 2014 ISAF Sailing World Championships through the S14 Emerging Nations Programme will result in eligibility.
