Paid Family Leave

The US is the only developed country with no paid family leave

8

The minimum number of weeks you can legally separate a puppy from its mother*

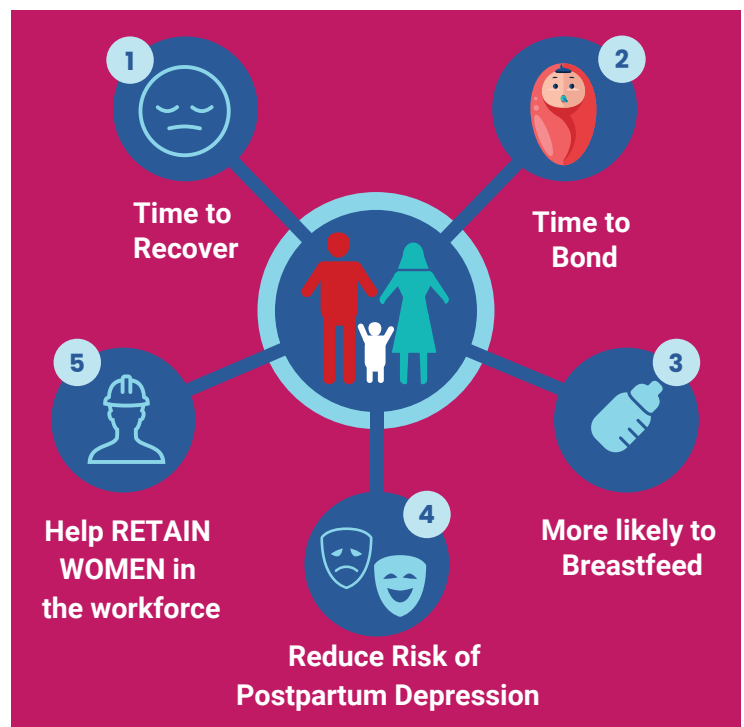

*For 22 of 25 states with laws on puppy sale, 7 weeks minimum for 3 of 25.

Who are we?

Moms from all across the country with varied backgrounds, professions, ethnicities, and worldviews are coming together to recognize the power of a collective voice and the importance of family-centered policies.

5 Reasons Paid Family Leave is Important to Moms

What can YOU do?

Support a paid family leave program that at a minimum allows (1) parents to care for and bond with their new babies, (2) people to care for themselves or family members when they have serious health conditions, including postpartum (or other) mental health disorders. Paid leave shall be provided for at least three months and be available to all working people, without threat of losing their job.
