

Veterinarian Answer Key

Kids.gov: <http://go.usa.gov/cjgTd> | YouTube: <https://youtu.be/cwohn5eJsnU>

- 1. What is the name of the government agency that uses working dogs?
A: U.S. Customs and Border Protection

- 2. What are detector dogs trained to do?
A: Detector dogs are trained to search and find illegal drugs.

- 3. What makes working dogs different than pet dogs?
A: Working dogs are more energetic and have more excitement for work and toys than pet dogs.

- 4. Why do Veterinarians check the dog's teeth?
A: Veterinarians check the dog's teeth to make sure they don't have gingivitis by looking at the dog's gum color and teeth.

- 5. How would someone interested in being a veterinarian get started?
A: They should try volunteering to work in veterinary clinics, rescues, or shelters.

Brought to you by

