

RYA Cymru Wales are committed to providing a website that is accessible to the widest possible audience, regardless of technology or ability. We are actively working to increase the accessibility and usability of our website and in doing so adhere to the available standards and guidelines.

Website Conformity

To help us make the RYA Cymru Wales website a positive place for everyone, we've used the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) 2.0 published by World Wide Web Consortium \(W3C\). These guidelines explain how to make web content more accessible for people with disabilities, and user friendly for everyone.

The Website has been tested with all major website browsers. If you need to alter the size of the text please use the +/- zoom feature of your website browser.

PDF Documents

To view and print Portable Document Format (PDF) files, you need the free Adobe Reader software. If you don't have Adobe Reader already, you can download it from www.adobe.com Follow the link titled 'Get Adobe Reader'.

Word Documents

You can view and print Microsoft Word files from Microsoft Word itself or several other word processing packages. Microsoft offer the free Microsoft Word Viewer as a download for Windows users that don't have a suitable word processor. The viewer is available from the Office section of www.microsoft.com

AbilityNet

Information, factsheets and step-by-step guides on approaches and technology to help disabled computer users. AbilityNet has useful links to UK organisations on their website, including literacy-related organisations and specialist IT suppliers. Find out more at www.abilitynet.org.uk

If you have any comments and or suggestions about our website please don't hesitate to contact us by emailing admin@ryacymruwales.org.uk or by telephone 01248670814.
