

N C C D P H P

HEALTHY TRIBES

RESOURCE DIGEST

Welcome to Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) tribal resource digest for the week of April 19, 2021. The purpose of this digest is to help you connect with the tools and resources you may need to do valuable work in your communities.

Announcements

Traditional Foods Are a Way to Talk About Health: The CDC Traditional Foods Project

Dawn Satterfield, PhD, MSN, RN, CDC National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, Division of Diabetes Translation and Lemyra DeBruyn, PhD (retired). Presentation here.

Indigenous Foods Movements in Alaska: Holistic Approaches for Nutrition and Culture

Seth N. Anderson, MS, RD, LD, Dietitian, Primary Care Clinics, Southcentral Foundation and Luz Smeenk, MS, RD, LD, Community Educator, Diabetes Program, and Amy Foote, CDM, Executive Chef, Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium. Presentation here.

Newly Available Nutrition Webinars from Indian Health Service

ANA 2021 Funding Opportunity Announcements

The Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Administration for Native Americans (ANA) announces that it will be soliciting applications for the Native American Language Preservation and Maintenance program (HHS-2021-ACF-ANA-NL-1924). This program provides funding for projects to support assessments of the status of the native languages in an established community, as well as the planning, designing, restoration, and implementing of native language curriculum and education projects to support a community's language preservation goals. Native American communities include American Indian tribes (federally-recognized and non-federally recognized), Native Hawaiians, Alaskan Natives, and Native American Pacific Islanders.

Applications due: Jun 25, 2021

Estimated Total Program Funding: $4,000,000

The Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Administration for Native Americans (ANA) announces that it will be soliciting applications for Social Economic Development Strategies for Growing Organizations (SEDS-GO). The goal of this program is to build capacity within Tribes, Native Non-Profits, and other entities which are eligible for ANA funding to strengthen their organizational capacity to compete for and sustain federal grants. The purpose of the Social Economic Development Strategies for Growing Organizations (SEDS-GO) is to provide financial assistance to Tribes and Native organizations that need to build internal capacity in order to better serve the communities where services are provided. The targeted challenges available to focus on within this funding opportunity are: Staff Development, Governance, Effective Grants Management, Strategic/Community Planning, Financial Management Systems, Use of Technology, Ability to Track and Manage Data, and Partnerships. The SEDS-GO is a funding opportunity that has the flexibility for up to a three-year project period with an award ceiling of $200,000 per budget period.

Applications due: Jun 30, 2021

Estimated Total Program Funding: $1,500,000

Healing Tool - Pocket Guide for Addressing Behavioral Health Goals in Native Communities

Provides data and strategies for addressing mental health and substance use issues in American Indian and Alaska Native communities. Discusses issues around stigma, medication-assisted treatment, and traditional healing practices, among other measures, for creating culturally competent care in tribal communities. Read more here.

Webinar, May 21, 2021 - Connecting Prevention Specialists to Native Communities

Provides data and strategies for addressing mental health and substance use issues in American Indian and Alaska Native communities. Discusses issues around stigma, medication-assisted treatment, and traditional healing practices, among other measures, for creating culturally competent care in tribal communities. Register here.