

Cannot file an annual report online? The business may need to reinstate.

- Reinstatement is required if a business entity is forfeited for failure to file annual reports.
- Reinstatements cannot be submitted online. Reinstatements must be submitted via mail or fax.
- Follow the steps below to reinstate:
- Determine the number of annual reports the business entity needs to submit. Do this by going to: <https://www.kansas.gov/bess/flow/main?execution=e1s1>
 - Select “Business Entity Database”
 - Search for the business by “Business Entity Name” or “Business Entity ID Number”
 - When you have located the business, select “View Record”
 - Near the bottom of the first column is the Last Annual Report on File
- To reinstate a business, an annual report must be filed for each year since the last year on file, through 2020, along with a reinstatement form. For example, if the last year on file is 2017, an annual report and fee is due for each of the following years: 2018, 2019, and 2020. Print the annual report forms from the Secretary of State’s website: sos.ks.gov under “Business Services, Business Services Forms” at the top of the page.
- Use the following annual report form based on business entity type. Annual reports submitted as part of a reinstatement cannot be filed online.

For-profit Corporation	Click letters AR
Not-for-profit Corporation	Click letters NP
Limited Liability Corporation (LLC)	Click letters LC
Limited Liability Partnership (LLP)	Click letters LLP
Limited Partnership (LP)	Click letters LP

- In addition to past due annual reports, a reinstatement form and fee are required. Print the reinstatement form from the Secretary of State’s website: sos.ks.gov under “Business Services, Business Services Forms” at the top of the page.
 - Use Form RR for:
 - For-profit Corporation
 - Not-for-profit Corporation
 - Use Form RL for:
 - Limited Liability Corporation (LLC)
 - Limited Liability Partnership (LLP)
 - Limited Partnership (LP)
