

SpaceX Website Privacy Policy

Last updated: July 1, 2021

We don't sell your personal information, but we still have to tell you what we collect from you when you access or use our websites and how we use it. We may update this policy from time to time. Your continued use of this site indicates your agreement to the updated terms.

If you are a prospective, current or past Starlink customer, this Privacy Policy also does not apply to you—please refer instead to our Starlink Customer Privacy Policy found at: <https://www.starlink.com/privacy-policy>.

If you are a resident of California, our CCPA Privacy Policy, found below, also applies to you. If you are located in the European Economic Area, the United Kingdom, or Switzerland (collectively "EEA+"), our EEA+ Privacy Policy, found below, also applies to you.

If you are under 13 years of age, please do not access or use our website. We do not knowingly collect or maintain personal information from people under 13, and if we find out that personal information of people under 13 has been collected on or through our website, we will delete it.

1. What Personal Information Do We Collect?

Depending on how you interact with our website, we may collect the following personal information about you, which we have grouped together as follows:

- Identity Data, which may include your first name, last name, and title.
- Contact Data, which may include your postal address, email address, and telephone numbers.
- Financial Data, which may include your payment card details and billing address.
- Profile Data, which may include username and password, purchases made by you, and customer service requests.
- Technical Data, which includes your internet protocol (IP) address, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, and operating system and platform.
- Usage Data, which includes information about how you use our website.
- Marketing and Communications Data, which includes your preferences in receiving marketing and non-marketing communications from us.
- Employment Data – if you apply for employment with SpaceX, we will collect your employment and work history, as well as personal information related to your potential employment. This may include your education and employment history, address and contact information, demographic information, and any other information included in your resume or application.

2. How Do We Collect Personal Information?

We may collect personal information about you from the following sources:

- From you, such as when you subscribe to our publications, purchase an item, request marketing to be sent to you, enter a promotion, complete a survey, or correspond with us by any means. As you interact with our website, we will also automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies.

- Publicly available sources, such as information that you or your organization make publicly available online.

3. How We Use Personal Information

We have set out below a description of the purposes for which we may use personal information. For each purpose, we identify the groups of personal information we use for that purpose (please refer to Section 1 above).

4. With Whom Do We Share Personal Information?

We may share your personal information with the following categories of third parties:

- Our Service Providers: We may transfer your personal information to our service providers, some of which may include our affiliates, as necessary for them to provide services to us in connection with our fulfillment of the purpose set out above. For example, we may rely on service providers to host and maintain our website, perform backup and storage services, process payments, collect debts, provide customer service, transmit communications, deliver products and prizes, and perform analytics services. Our service providers are located and process personal information in the following countries: United States and United Kingdom.
- Government Agencies, Regulators and Professional Advisors: Where permitted or required by applicable law, we may also need to transfer your personal data to government agencies and regulators (e.g., tax authorities, courts, and government authorities) to comply with our legal obligations, and to external professional advisors as necessary to defend our legal interests.
- Organizations Involved in Business Transfers: In the event of a merger, reorganization, dissolution or similar corporate event, or the sale of all or substantially all of our assets, we expect that the information that we have collected, including personal information, will be transferred to the surviving entity in a merger or the acquiring entity. Such information will be transferred in accordance with applicable law.

5. How Do We Protect Personal Information?

We maintain physical, administrative and technological safeguards intended to prevent personal information from accidental or unauthorized loss, alteration access or use. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected breach of personal information and will notify individuals and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

6. Your Privacy Rights

Under applicable laws, you may have rights to access, update, rectify, port or erase certain personal information that we have about you or restrict or object to certain activities in which we engage with respect to your personal information. If you have such rights and your request complies with the requirements under applicable laws, we will give effect to your rights as required by law.

To exercise any rights you may have under applicable privacy laws, please contact us using the details in the “Contact Us” section below. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

7. Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites, which may have privacy policies or notices that differ from ours. We are not responsible for the collection, processing or disclosure of personal information collected through other websites. We are also not responsible for any information or content contained on such websites. Links to other websites are provided solely for convenience. Your usage and browsing on any such website is subject to that website’s own policies. Please review the privacy notices posted on other websites that you may access through our website. We may provide you with additional or different privacy notices in specific instances which describe how your personal information is collected and used for a specific service.

SUPPLEMENTAL CCPA PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated July 1, 2021

As mentioned in our other privacy disclosures, we don't sell your personal information, but the privacy laws of California, including the California Consumer Protection Act of 2018 ("CCPA"), require us to provide some information about our data processing practices to California residents.

If you are a resident of California and not part of our workforce, this Supplemental CCPA Privacy Policy applies to you. However, this Privacy Policy does not reflect our collection, use or disclosure of California residents' personal information where an exception under the CCPA applies.

1. Your Personal Information: Right to Know, Request Deletion, and Opt-Out

As a California resident, you have the right to request that we disclose what PI we collect, use, and disclose about you specifically ("right to know"), and the right to ask that it be deleted. To submit a request to exercise the right to know or to delete, please submit a request, with the details you would like to know or delete, by email to privacy@spacex.com and include "California Request to Know or Delete" in the subject line, or by mail to ATTN: Privacy/Legal, Space Exploration Technologies Corp., 1 Rocket Road, Hawthorne, CA 90250.

We may need to verify your identity, and/or ask you to confirm your request. If we deny your request, we will explain why.

You also have the right to opt-out of the sale of your personal information by a business. We do not sell personal information, so there is no need to opt-out. We do not have actual knowledge that we sell the personal information of minors under 16 years of age.

2. Right to Non-Discrimination for the Exercise of a Consumer's Privacy Rights

You have a right not to receive discriminatory treatment by us for the exercise of your privacy rights under the CCPA.

3. Right to Be Informed of Financial Incentives

We do not currently offer any financial incentives in exchange for the retention or sale of California residents' personal information.

4. Authorized Agent

You can designate an authorized agent to make a request under the CCPA on your behalf if your authorized agent is a natural person or a business entity registered with the Secretary of State of California, and you sign a written declaration that you authorize the authorized agent to act on your behalf. If you use an authorized agent to submit a request under the CCPA, please have the authorized agent take the following steps in addition to the steps described in Section 1 above: (1) Mail a notarized copy of your written declaration authorizing the agent to act on your behalf to the address listed below (we will reimburse you for the costs of notarizing the declaration and mailing it to us if you provide a receipt showing the costs paid and they are reasonable); and (2) Provide any information we request from you to verify your identity and that you provided the authorized agent permission to submit a request under the CCPA on your behalf.

5. What we Collect

Collection of Personal Information

We have set out below the categories of personal information we have collected about California residents in the past 12 months as well as the sources, business or commercial purposes, and categories of third parties with whom we shared the personal information. We collect this information directly from California residents who use our website or subscribe for our services. If a California resident uses their organization's Starlink subscription, we may collect some of this information from their organization. We may also collect some information about a California resident's interests and preferences from a third-party source where they or their organization make such information publicly available, such as on their organization's public website.

SUPPLEMENTAL EEA+ PRIVACY NOTICE

Last Updated July 1, 2021

If you are located in the European Economic Area, the United Kingdom, or Switzerland (EEA+), and access our website, this Supplemental EEA+ Privacy Notice applies to you.

As mentioned in our other privacy disclosures, we don't sell your personal information (also referred to as "personal data"), but the data protection laws of the EEA+, including the General Data Protection Regulation and the UK GDPR (together, "GDPR"), require us to provide information about our data processing practices of certain people in the EEA+.

1. Who Is the Data Controller?

Space Exploration Technologies Corp. is the controller and responsible for your personal data.

With effect from June 30, 2021 – our representative in the European Union for data protection matters, pursuant to Article 27 of the GDPR is VeraSafe Ireland, Ltd.

With effect from June 30, 2021 – our representative in the United Kingdom for data protection matters, pursuant to Article 27 of the UK GDPR is VeraSafe United Kingdom, Ltd.

For information about how to contact us or our representatives, please see Section 7 of this Supplemental EEA+ Privacy Notice.

2. What Are Our Legal Bases for Processing Personal Data?

We rely on the following legal bases to process your personal data, as appropriate:

- necessary for us to perform a contract with you or take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract ("Contract Performance Legal Basis"), to comply with an applicable legal obligation ("Legal Obligations Legal Basis"), or to realize a legitimate interest based on an assessment of that interest and your privacy and other fundamental interests ("Legitimate Interest Legal Basis"); and
- is performed according to your consent ("Consent Legal Basis").

More information is provided below. Please contact us if you need details.

authorities as permitted or required by applicable law.	<input type="checkbox"/> In all other applicable cases, Legitimate Interest Legal Basis to prevent fraud, danger or other unlawful conduct, and to defend our legitimate legal interests.

3. How Do We Protect Personal Data if we transfer it internationally?

We may transfer your personal data to service providers and business partners outside of the EEA and/or UK.

Some of these recipients are located in countries in respect of which either the European Commission and/or UK Government (as and where applicable) has issued adequacy decisions, in which case, the recipient’s country is recognized as providing an adequate level of data protection under UK and/or European data protection laws (as applicable) and the transfer is therefore permitted under Article 45 of the GDPR.

Some recipients of your personal data may be located in countries outside the EEA and/or the UK for which the European Commission or UK Government (as and where applicable) has not issued adequacy decisions in respect of the level of data protection in such countries (“Restricted Countries”). For example, the United States is a Restricted Country. Where we transfer your personal data to a recipient in a Restricted Country, we will either:

- enter into appropriate data transfer agreements based on so-called Standard Contractual Clauses approved from time-to-time under GDPR Art. 46 by the European Commission, the UK Information Commissioner’s Office or UK Government (as and where applicable); or
- rely on other appropriate means permitted by GDPR Ch. V, which establish that such recipients will provide an adequate level of data protection and that appropriate technical and organizational security measures are in place to protect personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss or alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access, and against all other unlawful forms of processing.

You may ask for a copy of such appropriate data transfer agreements by contacting us using the contact details below.

4. How Long Do We Keep Personal Data?

We will only keep personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for. We may keep your personal data for a longer period to comply with our legal obligations or in the event of a complaint or litigation.

5. Your Rights

Regarding your personal data, You may have the right to:

- Request access (commonly known as a "data subject access request") - enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and information about how it is processed.
- Request correction - enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
- Request erasure - enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no lawful reason for us continuing to store or process it, where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons that will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- Object to processing - where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation that makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms.
- Request restriction of processing - enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data if, (i) you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (ii) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (iii) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (iv) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent.

To exercise these rights, please contact us using the contact details below.

Although we urge you to contact us first to find a solution for every concern you may have, you always have the right to lodge a complaint with your competent data protection authority.

6. Your Choices

You are not required to provide personal data to us but if you do not provide any personal data to us, you may not be able to use our website or we may not be able to authenticate and assist you with your orders, inquiries or requests, and we generally will not be able to provide you with our products and services.
