D5-DESIGN HAS COME WITH CSS 3 AND HTML 5

SETUP PROCESS

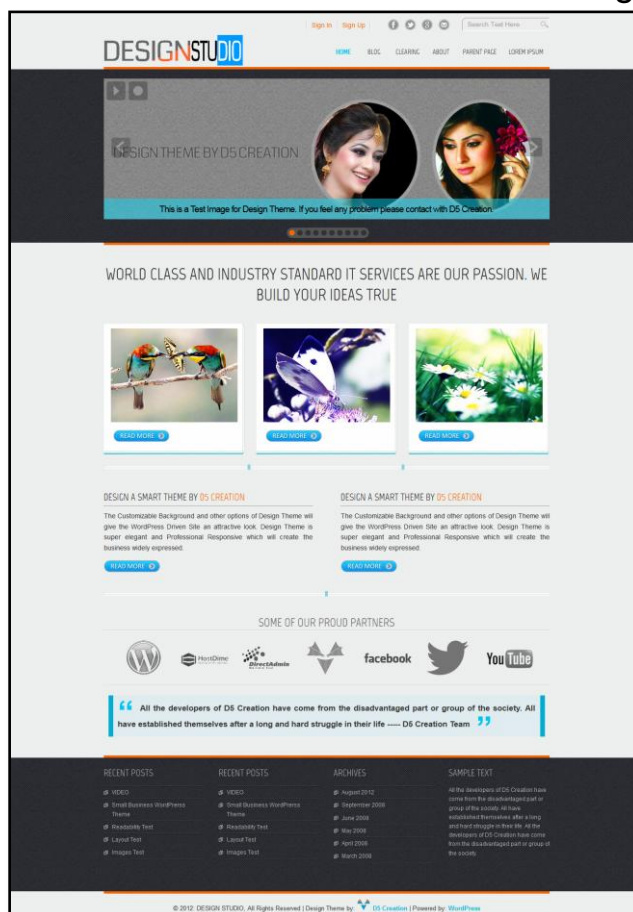

STEP 01

- Go to <http://d5creation.com>
- Log in to D5 Creation Site with your User ID and Password. You will find the Login Box in the top right corner of D5 Creation Site.

- Go to <http://d5creation.com/theme/design>
- Download the Extend Version of the Theme.

STEP 02

- Install and Activate the Theme DESIGN. You will find the Instruction of Installation in this link: <http://d5creation.com/themefaq>
- If you visit your site now the site will look like the following image.

- There will be 10 default sliding Images with Sample Caption. If everything be normal the Images will be starting Sliding and the Sliding Effects will be Random.

STEP 03

- Go to WordPress Dashboard. And Select Appearance > Menu
- D5 DESIGN has one Menu Locations. Main Menu is the Primary Menu which may show your main Pages. Main Menu Supports Child Menus.

The screenshot displays the WordPress 'Menu' editor interface. On the left, the 'Appearance' menu is active, and the 'Menu' sub-menu is selected. The 'Theme Locations' section shows 'Main_Menu' as the selected location. The 'Custom Links' section is empty. The 'Pages' section lists various pages, including 'Home', 'Blog', 'Clearing Floats', 'About The Tests', 'Level 1', 'Level 2', 'Level 3', 'Page with comments disabled', 'Page with comments', and 'Lorem Ipsum'. The 'Categories' section lists 'Uncategorized', 'aciform', 'Cat A', 'antiquarianism', and 'arrangement'. The main area shows the 'Main_Menu' configuration with a list of menu items: 'Home', 'Blog', 'Clearing', 'About', 'Level 1', 'Level 2', 'Level 3', 'comments disabled', 'Parent page', 'With comments', 'Child page 2', 'Child page 1', and 'Lorem Ipsum'. A red arrow points from the 'Blog' item in the menu list to the 'BLOG' link in the website's navigation bar.

- Create this Menu. You can find the instructions in this link:
<http://en.support.wordpress.com/menus>

STEP 04
